

T&C's FOR THE SALTIRE 24 & 12

When purchasing a Saltire 24 ticket you agree and consent to the following event terms and conditions by ticking a box:

Your entry to and participation of your selected event ('the Event' or 'Saltire 24' or 'Saltire 12') is provided to you by Rebel PT Ltd, a company incorporated under the Companies Acts (Registered No. SC515725) and having its Registered Office at Drynie Park, Maryculter, Aberdeen, AB12 5GL ('us', 'our' or 'we'), subject to these terms and conditions. References to the Event include all aspects of the Event organised by us including access, parking, the venue and the activity. By entering and participating in the Event you understand and accept the following terms and conditions:

- You knowingly and freely assume and accept all such risks, both known and unknown, and take full responsibility for your participation in all elements of the Event. You have familiarised yourself with the information about the Event shown on our website and in the description below.
- The Event is designed to be challenging and participants' resilience, fitness and mental toughness will be tested. You can run solo, in a pair, a quad or as part of an unlimited team. The objective is to complete as many laps as possible in the given time.
- The Event will typically be held in challenging outdoor environments that might include: extreme cold/heat; adverse weather conditions such as rain, wind, fog and humidity; demand significant and prolonged physical effort; and involve an inherent risk of contact with hazardous flora and fauna. The Event is a hazardous activity that presents a significant physical and mental challenge to all participants.
- You acknowledge, accept and understand that the route, trails, paths and all terrain involved in the Event are physically and mentally challenging and hazardous, and due to the nature of the Event, there is an inherent risk of acute illness, injury or even death.
- You understand that hazards within the Event may be magnified due to the fact that the Event is often conducted under what may be extreme conditions and circumstances.
- You recognise the inherent risks associated with the Event and consider yourself physically and mentally able to take part in the Event.
- You are responsible for your own safety throughout the entire Event and you are taking part in the Event entirely at your own risk.
- You will adhere to any instructions given to you by the organisers, officials and marshals before, during and after the Event, and we may stop you from taking part in the Event at any time.
- You agree to (i) behave appropriately at all times; (ii) act respectfully towards all people, equipment, the environment, property and facilities; and (iii) participate in the Event with a cooperative and positive attitude.
- You will notify the organisers, officials and marshals as soon as possible if you believe or become aware that any aspects of the Event route, facilities or equipment are unsafe or pose unreasonable risks to yourself or others.
- You accept full and sole responsibility for the condition and adequacy of all personal equipment that you bring to or use at the Event.
- For safety reasons all participants MUST bring official photo ID to event registration. Acceptable forms of ID include passport, driving licence, firearms licence or other forms of official photo ID.

- For solo runners, you will be at least 20 years of age on the date of the Event
- For all runners who are part of a team you will be at least 18 years of age on the date of the Event.
- Your entry fee paid to Rebel PT Ltd is non-refundable.
- Your entry is not secured until the Event entry fee is received by us.
- We are not responsible for loss of or damage to property or for any additional costs you may incur in connection with the Event.
- You will pay us and any persons or organisations acting on our behalf for any damages, loss or costs caused by any of your negligent or destructive behaviour during the Event.
- We reserve the right to cancel or close down the Event if we consider there is an unacceptable risk to the participants, our staff or the general public. In this highly unlikely happening (e.g. extreme weather) we will do our utmost to reorganise the Event for another date but cannot guarantee a replacement, and we will not be able to refund the entry fee or any other costs associated with the Event.
- You must register on the date and time as specified by the Event Organiser.
- Participants must display their timing chip and race number provided at Registration at all times.
- The Event has insurance cover; however, we recommend that participants have appropriate insurance cover for their personal health, equipment and event cancellation.
- If you wish cover for personal injury you must make your own arrangements.
- Each participant accepts full responsibility for any fees or costs incurred or arising from the need for repatriation within or outwith the UK.
- Rebel PT Ltd reserve the right to refuse entry to the Event to anyone with inappropriate equipment or clothing.
- You will not give your Event entry to anyone else, pretend to be anyone else or swap any participant identification methods during the Event.
- You must follow the instructions provided by Event Officials, Marshals and Event Organisers at all times.
- All volunteers and staff involved in the Event will be clearly identifiable. It is the responsibility of each participant to take the correct course.
- If you see anyone who requires additional help or medical assistance you will help to the best of your ability and report the situation to an Event marshal as soon as possible.
- You must not deviate from the official Event route, which will have directional signage throughout.
- The marking of the route does not necessarily indicate that the trail or path is free from hazards and the participant is deemed to make their own decision about whether it is safe for them to proceed.
- Rebel PT Ltd insist that you use the route shown. If you choose a different route you do so entirely at your own risk.
- Rebel PT Ltd reserve the right to shorten or alter the published routes at any time.

- If you retire from the Event or leave your route at any point you will inform the nearest marshal or staff member as soon as possible and follow their directions as to the safest return route to the start/finish area where you must inform Event HQ of your retirement and return your electronic timing chip.
- The Event Organiser will make every effort to provide participants with a race time but is not responsible for any electronic timing issues.
